Bible Study & Fellowship Schedule • September 2026 through June 2027

Saturday Bible Studies

Fellowship Hall, Mount Calvary. Fellowship, coffee and breakfast at 7:30 AM. Bible study from 8:00 to 9:00 AM.

Date	Topic
September 26, 2026	Vocation: Living Out Your Calling How God works through the ordinary callings of husband, father, worker, and citizen, and why daily work done in faith is pleasing to Him.
October 10, 2026	From Calling to Confession: Vocation and the Sinner and Saint We wrap up our study of vocation and carry it into the Christian's dual nature. The man God calls to serve as husband, father, and worker is the same man who falls short in every one of those callings, and who is forgiven and restored in Christ in every one of them.
October 24, 2026	Babel Rebuilt: AI, the Singularity, and the Limits of Man What does Scripture say about man's age old desire to transcend his limits, and where does our true hope lie?
November 14, 2026	Heaven and Hell: What the Bible Actually Says Moving past popular misconceptions to what God reveals about death, judgment, the resurrection of the body, and the new heavens and new earth. Held the day before Saints Triumphant Sunday.
November 28, 2026	Apologetics: Giving a Reason for the Hope You Have The cosmological, teleological, and historical arguments, and why the empty tomb is where every argument must lead. We'll close by gathering the questions you most want to tackle in future apologetics sessions. (Thanksgiving weekend; a short follow up form will go out afterward for anyone unable to attend.)
December 12, 2026	Faith and Politics: Citizens of Two Kingdoms How Christians engage civil life faithfully and charitably in a divided age, grounded in Scripture and the Lutheran confessions.
